► Product Features

Advanced Chip, Core of Precision

Biwin Amber RA410, powered by a high-performance controller, ensures stable, fast data transfer for CFexpress™ Type A cards. It handles large files and high-speed workflows with ease, preserving every detail of your creative work in original quality. Save time on post-production while maintaining the visual precision of your high-resolution images and videos.

Impressive Speeds Save Time

Experience the power of USB 4.0 technology with transfer speeds reaching up to 40 Gbps. The Amber RA410 delivers read speeds up to 1650 MB/s when paired with Biwin Amber CA350 CFexpress™ 4.0 Type A memory card. Effortlessly handle high-resolution, and high-bitrate media files, making it the ideal tool for demanding video production and professional content creation workflows.

Plug. Play. Create. Work Anywhere

Simplify your workflow with Biwin Amber RA410's plug-and-play functionality and hot-swapping support. Featuring a USB-C port and an included USB4 Type-C to Type-C cable, it seamlessly connects to laptops, tablets, and smartphones. Fully compatible with Windows, Mac OS, and Android systems, you can access, view, and manage your files anytime, anywhere with ease.

Reliable Cooling for Prolonged Use

Designed to deliver consistent, high-speed performance during prolonged use, Biwin Amber RA410 features an advanced cooling system with an aluminum alloy heatsink and cooling fins. Even under full load, the device stays cool and operates without interruptions. The Amber RA410 offers stability and smooth performance that you can rely on.
